Weingarten, September 10, 2015

Once again, Weingarten (Baden-Wuerttemberg, Germany)-based technology managers and financial experts CHG-MERIDIAN have reaffirmed their unreserved commitment to their role as the main sponsor of the Ravensburg Towerstars. As the company announced to mark the start of the season, the Towerstars will be able to count on CHG-MERIDIAN's active support throughout the coming season as well.

"We've been supporting the Towerstars for more than ten years now, and for a good reason: because we share traditions as well as our passion for an exceptional team sport," said Frank Kottmann during Thursday's official jersey handover at CHG-MERIDIAN's Weingarten headquarters. "We wish General Manager Rainer Schan, Coach Daniel Naud, Assistant Coach Christopher Oravec, and the rest of the team great success at their first official game and throughout the upcoming season," Kottman added.

Rainer Schan, General Manager of the Ravensburg Towerstars, described the partnership as an exceptional one. "CHG-MERIDIAN and the Towerstars have been a strong team for many years now. Without this level of trust, ice hockey at this level and with this degree of importance to the entire Bodensee-Upper Swabia region would surely be impossible," said Rainer Schan.

CHG-MERIDIAN employees committed to social purpose

In keeping with this sense of team spirit, the employees at CHG-MERIDIAN's Weingarten headquarters have mobilized in support of successful—and, above all, team-oriented—start to the season. As part of the organization's CARE initiative, employees can suggest social projects and institutions they would like their locations to support personally—in this case, by sponsoring an outing to a Towerstars game during the coming season. "We're sponsoring the tickets, food and drinks," Kottmann went on. "Our employees are donating their free time so that they can watch a game together with the respective groups. This kind of commitment is great, and we're happy to support it."
